Kate Romero has literally changed my life. I was so comfortable with my blocks that I didn't realize that I had them. As a result of Kate's coaching, I have a new and positive lease on life and abundance started to appear the very day of my first coaching. She is wise beyond her years, compassionate and caring. If you value yourself and your life you owe it to yourself to be coached by Kate. Her intuitive abilities are truly extraordinary. If only our world leaders could take her coaching this would be a truly enlightened world.

Dear Katie, The day I found your website I sat there in stunned disbelief. There you were "the guardian angel" peering out at me. Just what I had asked for. How amazing was this?! Though we have only had two sessions, you have proven your guardianship. I appreciate your honest feedback, your power of positive thought, and your zeal for helping me to change my life to create the life I want. You are an amazing lady and mentor. I am very blessed to have found you. Gratefully,

Harla Briggs

Hi Kate, wow thank you for such an inspiring and eye opening view. I felt the stress and weight of pressure I've been putting on myself literally fall off of me. I have to admit I never thought about "If we look at life circumstances as if something is missing then we are making our life wrong. When we focus on what is missing, being the powerful persons that we all are, then we will have more of what is missing." Every single word you said was a gem. I keep thinking of them over and over and I have promptly shifted my perspective. It makes so much sense. Thanks for whipping me into shape!

Michael Timothy McAlevey:

Dear Katie, Thank you so much for meeting with me. It is extremely refreshing to know there is someone like you in the business of talent management. But even more refreshing is the fact that you use your energy to benefit others. One of the things that struck me as I left our meeting was the very simple fact that I could talk to you about anything. While talking to you I felt that you understood who I am....and that means more than you can imagine. "Sometimes the soul of an artist can know for sure what the mind of a scientist will never understand." I feel a little more optimistic just knowing that someone like you actually exists. You have a much more energetic opinion on the human evolutionary changes than I do...I am prepared to alter my exaggerated time frame with your help. Thanks again! Peace.

Katie, I'm not sure I ever really thanked you for the coaching sessions... In the short time we had together, you awakened existing knowledge within myself, as well as, exposed me to an entirely new state of mind I was eager to adopt and apply to my every day life. My awareness of who I am, what I am capable of, and just how much goodness life has to offer, is astounding. Never have I felt so comfortable with Who I am, What I'm doing, and Where I'm going in this life. Every morning, before my feet hit the ground, I make a commitment to myself to attract and share only light. I can't tell you how empowering it is to start every day in such a wonderfully positive state of mind.

Every aspect of my life is going in a more positive direction, more quickly than I ever could have imagined. My projections are being realized every day, and the confidence I have within myself to achieve all that I want in this life, is more powerful than ever before! The vibrations within myself, as well as all those around me, are radiant! My experience with you has proved to be invaluable. I am so grateful to have encountered such a wonderful mentor. You have guided me to a place in my life I had begun to think, may never be realized-- how wrong I was, and who knew something as simple as "trusting yourself" could give one such amazing life rewards. Thank you so much Katie. I genuinely look forward to working with you again in the near future! Sincerely Yours, :)

Katie-- I don't think I've said this enough lately...I feel so truly blessed to have you in my life. Thank you for introducing me to ME. ;-) xo, Steph

Barbara Rose;

Katie- You are so enlightened! I don't say that to a lot of people. Your words really hit home, and I want to help you reach as many people as possible! Have you considered writing a monthly or bi-monthly article with your spiritual wisdom? Or even one once in a while - I REALLY want to publish what you write, and the slogan you created is enlightening! You're such a gift Katie - please remember that. I feel very lucky to know you!
